

During my one month residence in Krems I was working on my new book of poetry: I was thinking about final changes and working on corrections. Finally, the book is completed and should be published this autumn.

I also wrote a few new texts inspired by my stay in Krems. I think this is the beginning of a new, large poetic composition.

Old town and beautiful landscape around were inspiring environment for me and my work. Working conditions were excellent. From my studio I had a beautiful view directly on the Danube and the hills behind him, there is peace and quiet. The studio was furnished very practical and modern. I was missing nothing.

I would like to thank the people from Literaturhaus and AIR Krems.
