

Mahdis Golzar Kashani was born on January 20, 1984. At a very early age she got acquainted with music. She had the honor to be Javad Maroufi's pupil.

She then started learning music academically by attending the IRIB art and literature school for kids and children. At the same time, she got valuable on stage and live experience through solo performances for IRIB University. After graduating from the school and while she was a student of electronic engineering at Azad University of Karaj, she started taking additional Piano courses with Maestro Haynnoosh Makarian and Professor Tamar Dolitze and theoretical courses with Dr. Mehran Rohani.

After graduation from engineering she was admitted to master course of composition in Soore Art University and was graduated in 2012. Performing in some recitals, taking part in various music festivals (such as three editions of "Classic to Contemporary") and collaboration with Vahdat Hall's Choir as a pianist in parallel with her teaching as a piano tutor were some of her activities in recent years.

She has successfully passed some composing master classes including Jouhana Dodrer's.

She was a resident composer in 4020 Music Festival which took place in 2013, Austria. She was also nominated as the selected composer in KLIK NEW composing competition 2013, Ukraine and Epic Persia in London, and she took part in several music festivals.

She had commission by Lemmings Instituut LUCA (Belgium) and young soloist of National Orchestra (NOB) (Belgium).
